Coleman makes it clear that a believer's consecration to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit has the very best model of consecration before them in the person of Jesus. Coleman writes...
"Absolute obedience to the will of God, of course, was the controlling principle of the Master's own life. In his human nature he continually gave consent to the will of his Father which made it possible for God to use his life fully according to its intended purpose. Repeatedly he sounded it out: "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work (John 4:34); "I seek not my own will, but the will of him that sent me" (John 5:30; cf., 6:38); "I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love" (John 15: 10; 17:4). It could be summed up in his cry of Gethsemane, "Not my will, but yours be done" (Luke 22:42; Mark 14:36; Matt. 26:39, 42, 44)."

The Great Commission

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:18-20

Multiplying Great Commission Participants

You then, my child, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus, and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. 2 Timothy 2:1,2

Asking Great Commission Participants to Be All In

If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. John 14:23
