What Jesus Gives Us
His Example
His Purpose
His Power

"Jesus wanted his followers to obey him. But in recognizing this truth, he realized that his disciples would discover the deeper experience of his Spirit. And in receiving his Spirit they would know the love of God for a lost world. That is why his demands upon discipline were accepted without argument. The disciples understood that they were not just keeping a law, but were responding to One that loved them, and who was willing to give of himself for them. His was a life of giving—giving away what the Father had given him (John 15:15; 17:4, 8, 14)."

The Great Commission

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:18-20

Multiplying Great Commission Participants

You then, my child, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus, and what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. 2 Timothy 2:1,2

Asking Great Commission Participants to Receive

No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

John 15:15
